ACHS Buzzes With Homecoming Plans

Antioch's Homecoming festivities will start off this weekend with the traditional bonfire Friday night at the High School about 8 p.m., followed by a sock hop in the school gym.

Actually, activities started last Friday night, as a group of the students paraded through downtown Antioch, Lake Villa and Lindenhurst. A football squad of girls dressed in gridders gear advanced the ball down the street, led by members of the school band playing the Sequoia Song, and followed by marchers carrying placards that spelled out Homecoming date and predicted a dire fate for Round Lake, the opponents of the Sequoia on the football field Saturday.

Homecoming parade will start at 10:30 a.m. and will travel down Main St. The Homecoming game will start at noon with the sophomore game followed by the varsity game at about 2 p.m.

Saturday evening will be Homecoming Dance at 8 p.m. with the Blue Notes supplying the music. The Homecoming Queen will be crowned at 10:30 p.m.

Candidates for the Queen title are Sandy Pyles, June Horton and Lois Herman. The court consists of Judy Mieuire, freshman; Karen Sheehan, sophomore, and Becky Day, junior.

Crowned King By Friends In Bristol Band

Louis "Doc" Koehn was honored for his years of devotion to the Bristol Band at a buffet dinner at Jack Andres Restaurant in Richmond recently.

Koehn was crowned "King" by Miss Bessie Barnes, the band's director.

Ray Pofahl, who had a hand in starting the band 38 years ago and still plays with the music organization, was also present.

The Westlosha Men's Chorus entertained with vocal selections, but much of the program was impromptu, with musicians who were presented by the Benson Brothers with Mead Walker on the sax, Henry Schwandt on bass and Rich Sabon on the drums. Bill Benson, Jr. was at the organ.

Enmett Sabin presented Koehn with a check for $50, which was turned over to the director of Central High School's band, Edgar Stevens, at Koehn's request. The money will be used to help defray cost of band uniforms.

Several members of Central's band also play with the Bristol band. Diane Hein, a champion baton twirler who appears with the band, was presented with the Director's award, a gold anklet, by Miss Barnes, who complimented the young lady for "her gracious cooperation throughout a crowded season of public performances."

"No Fires" Pleads Ant. Fire Chief

Seven grass fires since the first of October have harassed the Antioch Fire Department.

"Please, don't start fires," says Todd Mapleshorpe, Fire Chief of the Antioch Department. Todd warns that everything is bone dry, due to the long lack of rain, and that it's all too easy for fires to get out of control. The high winds the last few days have contributed to the trouble.

The grass fires were at these locations: Oct. 1, Drexel Blvd., Grass Lake; Oct. 1, Catherine Ave., Grass Lake; Oct. 2, Willow Dale Dairy, Corona Ave.; Oct. 2, Rt. 173 east of Rt. 45; Oct. 2, near the Antioch Bowl; Oct. 3, Rt. 173 near Lorenz's Restaurant; Oct. 4, Rte. 173 and Anita Ave.

The fire department also extinguished a fire in the

Wells Nabs Kidnappers

Corporal John Wells, Antioch, of the District 2 State Police apprehended two kidnappers last Friday and freed their victim.

It was discovered after interrogation that the two Negro men were ex-convicts. Daniel Michael Monroe, 24, of 3523 W. Douglas, and David Graham, 25, Alto Hotel 2700 W. Madison, both of Chicago, are in McHenry County Jail under $5,000 bond each.

The two men picked up a 23-year-old Chicago Negro woman at Sacramento and California Avenues, in Chicago. They drove to a gas station at Rand Road and Rt. 53, Cook County, where they took a battery booster.

The woman left a note that she was being held against her will. Cpl. Wells was in the area and pursued the car.

They were apprehended near Solon Mills. After interrogation, Monroe admitted to having served two years in state penitentiaries in Michigan, Indiana and Oklahoma; one year for assault in the Vandalia State Penitentiary; a term in 1962 for contributing to the delinquency of a minor and at Vandalia for petty larceny.

Graham also admitted to having served two years in Pontiac for armed robbery; nine months in Vandalia for assault with a deadly weapon.

ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP ASSESSMENT ROLL FOR 1966

The assessment roll of the Town of Antioch as certified by the Supervisor of Assessments appears on pages 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17 of this issue of The Antioch News. Every property owner of the Town of Antioch should make it a point to check the amount of his assessment.

Any property owner who objects to the amount of his assessment should file a complaint with the Board of Review, Room 506, Lake County Court House in Waukegan WITHIN TEN DAYS from the date of publication of this assessment roll.

1st National Moves Into New Home & Policies

New quarters, some totally new services, and new personnel in the executive positions are all on the agenda as the First National Bank of Antioch opened at its new location on Main St. this (Thursday) morning.

The First National moved into the thoroughly remodeled building on the northwest corner of Lake and Main Sts. yesterday. Local, county and state police guarded the workers as safety boxes and other valuables were moved.

A brand new innovation, a drive-up TV window, first of its kind in Antioch, is one of the services on tap at the bank in its new location. A credit card system is in the works, with cards expected to be mailed out to about 7,000 persons in the area by November 1, in time for Christmas shopping.

E. J. Stetten, vice president, who has been at the First National for 24 years, retires as the bank moves. Taking his place will be LaVerne M. Woods, an aggressive young banker who comes to Antioch from the Wheeling Trust & Savings Bank.

Another new executive will move into the position of vice president in charge of loans, Walter Daniels, also recently at the Wheeling Bank. Dale Starkey, who has been with the First National three years, moves up into the position of cashier. Russell Barnstable remains president of the bank.

A progressive and competitive policy is promised by the new executive group as they move into new quarters, exemplified by the speedy introduction of the credit-card system and the TV drive-up window for customer convenience.

LaVerne M. Woods, 36, the new executive vice president of the First National, has been in the banking field 12 years. He is originally from Jamestown, New York, where he started on his banking career.

Woods lives in Wheeling at the present, but plans to move to Antioch. His family consists of his wife, Joyce, and two children, L. Mark, 12 years old, and Dawn Marie, 11. Since graduating from Jamestown High School he has studied at the American Institute of Banking, the School of Consumer Banking, the University of Virginia, and Illinois Bankers School at Southern Illinois University, and is presently attending the graduate school of Banking at the University of Wisconsin at Madison.

Woods attends Grace Lutheran Church at Prospect Heights and is on the Church Council. He is treasurer of the Rotary Club in Wheeling, recently president of the Wheeling Community Pool, was a member of the Zoning Board of Appeals, belongs to the Wheeling Masonic Lodge and the Scottish Rite in Medinah Temple in Chicago. He is president of the North-eastern Illinois Chapter of the National Association of Bank Auditors and Controllers. His hobbies are golf, bowling and flying.

Walter Daniels, 36, taking charge of the Loan department at the bank, is a resident of Winthrop Harbor. He has been in the banking field three years, and had previous experience with finance and discount companies.

Daniels also plans to move to Antioch. His wife, Dorothy, is also in the banking field, employed at the Citizens' National Bank of Waukegan.

Daniels is a graduate of Zion-Benton Township High School, and has studied banking principles at the American Institute of Banking, Illinois Bankers School and Southern Illinois University. He is a member of Our Lady of Humility Church at Wadsworth. He's an avid sportsman, with hobbies of skiing, golf, tennis, hunting in South Dakota and fishing in Canada, high on his list of recreations.

Dale Starkey, promoted to cashier, is active in Antioch's Babe Ruth League this year. He studied at Illinois State and is attending the American Institute of Banking. He is a member of the Masonic Temple at Normal, a member of the Antioch Lions Club, and a Director of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce.

Starkey is a member of the Board of Deacons of Lake-Land Baptist Church. He and his family live on Lake Street in Antioch. His family is his wife, Diane, and four children, Terry, 7; Sherry, 5; Mary, 3, and Steve, 2.

The credit card system in banking, say the three bank officials, is "the nicest thing since money," the slogan of the credit card system.

Dale Starkey explained the credit card system to a meeting of Antioch merchants on Sept. 28 in the bank lobby. Twenty-five local merchants have signed up with the bank to participate in the system and more are considering the proposition.

Object of the system, says Dale, is to make it possible for customers to go into any town in the area and do their complete shopping without cash.

Credit card holders will make purchases from merchants. Charge slips will be stamped with their credit card, and turned over to the bank. The bank will daily credit the merchant's accounts with the amount represented by the charge slips he turns in.

Customers will be billed monthly for all purchases made with their credit cards. They have fifteen days to pay the account without any additional charge. After the fifteen days, a charge of 1 1/2 per cent per month is added.

Large purchases can be spread over 20 months by paying the carrying charge. In addition, the credit card holder may borrow up to $100 cash at any time from the bank on his credit card.

Advantages to the merchants are instant cash for all goods sold, increased sales, no credit losses and no bookkeeping or billing of credit accounts. The customer has the convenience of complete credit in any merchant store, at no charge if payment is made within the specified period. The banks, says Dale, hope to profit from increased customers.

Purchasers not normally trading with the bank will become familiar with the bank through their credit card accounts. The bank will eventually profit from the time payment accounts.

The system has been proven in Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Boston. The Chicago area is now going into the system.

The credit card is good for $400 worth of purchases a month without previous arrangement.

Candy Day Fri. & Sat.

From Friday, October 7, until noon Saturday, October 8, members of the Lions Club will be out on Antioch streets asking for your contributions for the blind.

In return, the Lions will give you a roll of candy. The candy is being contributed by the State Bank of Antioch.

Candy Day is an annual affair which helps to provide numerous services for the blind. Among them are free education to thousands of blind persons through the services of the Hadley School for the Blind; training Leader Dog teams which help blind persons get around, so that they may hold a job; provide blind people with Dialogue, recorded magazine for the blind; set up Glaucoma Clinics, give eye tests, make gifts of braille writers, typewriters, tape recorders and white canes and send visually handicapped children to Illinois Camp Lions as guests of Lions Clubs.

Ray Jensen is in charge of Antioch's Candy Day this year. You'll see Lions members, in aprons and carrying boxes of candy and containers for your contributions, on Antioch's streets this Friday and Saturday.

Balloon Takes A Long Trip

Ever wonder how far a balloon will go if you release it and let it float away?

Twelve-year-old Jeff Tossy, 402 Winsor Drive, Antioch, and his nine-year-old brother Bruce wondered—so they released one. First, they tied a note to the string with their name and address and a request that anyone finding it write to them.

The balloon was given to them at the Grand Opening of Wilton's Electric Shop on Sept. 17. The following Tuesday they received a letter from Nelson Pinkerton. He had found the balloon in an alfalfa field on the farm where he lived Sunday morning seven and one-half miles north of Waupun, Wis.

It is over 100 miles to Waupun, quite a jaunt for one little balloon.

Legionnaires Improve Hall

Members of American Legion Post 748 have completed several improvements on the Legion Hall on Ida Ave.

The work and material for the improvements were donated by members of the Legion Post. The building was painted, gravel spread to increase the size of the parking lot, new aluminum storm windows and screens have been installed and the main entrance remodeled for easier and safer entrance.

Weddings have become so costly that it's now the father of the bride who breaks down and weeps.

October 15 Deadline For Knolls Sewers Is Problem

How to convince forty Oakwood Knolls homeowners that they must hook into village sewers, and the financial problems involved, were discussed at Tuesday night's meeting of the village board.

The homeowners have until October 15 to hook into the sewers. Some who have not paid the fee nor arranged for the work to be done are simply not able to do it financially, Mayor Ray Toft said. Toft reported also that some contractors are evidently taking advantage of the Oct. 15 deadline for profiteering, raising prices to the residents by as much as $200, knowing that the work must be done.

The exceptionally dry season has contributed to the difficulty of getting action, trustees reported. Septic tanks are working better than usual because the ground is so dry.

The ordinance provides a $10 to $100 a day penalty for the homeowners who are not hooked up by Oct. 15. However, trustees agree, they would prefer to get the job done without penalizing residents.

The board decided to contact the county health department in regard to the situation, and to call a meeting of the board and those residents who have not complied with the ordinance after October 15 in the hope of making some headway.

Trick or Treat came in for some discussion, after the board granted approval of UNICEF's request to allow children to collect funds October 30. Mayor Ray Toft suggested that all trick or treat activities be confined to October 30, and the board approved the motion.

Trustee Robert Wilton reported that the committee in charge of licensing recommended that a liquor license could not be issued to "Bud" Holtz. Holtz owns the building formerly occupied by Casey's Tap on Main St.

An ordinance adopted by the board in February limits the number of liquor licenses to one per 800 residents, and no liquor licenses are available in Antioch under that ordinance.

Trustee David Nissen protested the decision, pointing out that the building is a landmark and every effort should be made to keep it occupied. However, the board approved the recommendation of the committee.

The board approved, an expenditure of not more than $700 to install an automatic cut-off on motors at the disposal plant and at Wells 3 and 4, to shut them off if trouble developed so that they would not burn out.

Attorney Ed Jacobs reported that he could find no record of an agreement of the board with developers of Herman's subdivision in regard to a road easement. The board had been notified that possession of the road had reverted to the original owners because of failure of the board to improve the right of way.

Toft instructed Attorney Jacobs to meet with the attorney of the present owner of the property and attempt to straighten out the matter.

Trustee Roger Williams reported that the committee had visited the proposed parking lot at the site now the Lyons & Ryan lot. The area is too small to accommodate many cars safely, he said, and the committee felt the village would be unwise to assume liability for the lot. The matter was held over for more investigation.

Trustee Vern Barnstable reported that the Great Lakes Fire Equipment Co. had surveyed the village and recommended a combination air raid and tornado warning siren at a cost of $1575. The Civil Defense organization would pay half of this amount.

It was pointed out that not enough money had been appropriated for Civil Defense to pay the village share of the cost. Toft recommended that Civil Defense Director Ed Frazier get definite commitment that the Federal government would pay half, and perhaps by then something could be worked out.

The board approved a motion to seal coat the parking lot behind stores on the west side of Main St. at a cost not to exceed $500.

The board approved dedication of a street on Zelander Lane, 50 feet wide and 72 1/2 feet long.

The board approved the purchase of a Warsaw snow plow at a cost of $1,156.

Attorney Jacobs reported that the suit of Ray Lorenz charge of shutting off his water would be heard October 16 and 17.

The board approved the request of the A & P Store to transfer liquor and dairy licenses from their Lake St. location to their new store in the shopping plaza as of October 15.

The purchase of an air compressor for $1,900 was approved.

The board approved acceptance of $3,065.04 from Laursen & Blackman as partial payment for sewers on 517 feet of frontage on Anita St., with payment of the balance to be made within two years.

Candy Day—Add Your Bit

The problems of the world are many and complex. Every day we are reminded that something must be done to end the war, to stop the rising crime rate, and the traffic toll, that we have tough problems to cope with in the area of civil rights, poverty, education.

In short, the problems of this huge nation seem so tremendous that they are insoluble. Anything we can do would be a drop in the bucket. We forget that all of these problems are an accumulation of single problems, and that each must be solved individually and day by day.

The Lions Club Candy Day for the Blind is an example of a comparatively small effort that adds up to a very large contribution toward solving a major problem—helping the blind. A comparatively few civic-minded Lions members will ask Antioch residents this Friday and Saturday to give a little to help the blind. The amount they accumulate for their hours of work may seem small. But multiplied by thousands of communities across the nation it adds up to a tremendous good. Thousands of individuals will be helped, because a few people in each community will undertake to help a few people who need help.

Fight Fires Before They Start

One Sunday morning in September, 300 years ago, fire started in a bake shop on Pudding Lane, London. Five days later 13,000 homes and 87 churches, over almost 400 acres, lay in ashes.

Within two months of that holocaust, the first laws directed at fire prevention were enacted. The City Council of London ruled that all new homes had to be built of brick and stone, not timber and thatch, and that the trades of brewing, dyeing and soap boiling could not be carried on in house courtyards as before.

Fire prevention, as we know it, was born. While much has been done over these three centuries toward greater fire safety, there are 300,000 fires in homes each year in this country and almost 4,000 children die in fires.

Fire prevention is a constant concern and requires the educational efforts of many in each community, the fire department, Junior Fire Marshals, a public service program among elementary school children sponsored in Antioch by Romer's Insurance Agency and the Hartford Insurance Group; the diligent and imaginative efforts of teachers; librarians; the Red Cross, and Smokey the Bear campaigns, to mention a few.

During Fire Prevention Week, October 9-15, our attention is directed to the concern for safety and to those dedicated to keep it, and us, alive. We salute them.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

There is a growing feeling even among supporters of Charles Percy that he is going to have to call off the campaign moratorium voluntarily imposed by Sen. Paul Douglas in the wake of the recent Percy family tragedy.

The Republican candidate for U. S. Senator has sent Sen. Douglas a telegram assuring the veteran solon it would be proper for him to return to the political sawdust trail, but until Percy himself resumes campaigning it is virtually impossible for his Democratic opponent to do so without risking censure.

By remaining in seclusion and delaying his return to active campaigning Percy is handicapping all candidates, not only Sen. Douglas.

It is embarrassing for Ray Page, Harris Rowe and other candidates to be talking politics when the head of the ticket is still sidelined in mourning and yet they have to do their jobs.

State Senator Robert Coulson is going to need some help from the people of Lake and McHenry Counties if his fight to bring a four year state college to this district is to be successful. Sen. Coulson launched his fight two years ago, but he garnered little support then and consequently the Higher Education Planning Board has decided on putting three of four new colleges in Cook County.

There are many influential people in Lake County who should rally behind Sen. Coulson to help bring a college or university to this area.

The most effective support could be in the nature of selection of a possible site and a pledge from the people to make it available to the state as a gift.

There is a tendency on the part of the political and official wheels to overlook Lake County when it comes time to select state candidates or to establish new state facilities, but perhaps this policy could be reversed if the people of the area united for once and went out to really fight for something they feel is worthwhile and to which the county is entitled.

It would almost appear to be too late for effective fund-raising for political can-

One stumbling block to our progress around Saigon is a so-called Buddhist monk by the name of Tri-Quang. By any objective analysis, he is a fake.

He admits open collaboration with Ho Chi-minh's Communist apparatus as far back as 1940, when he was 17 years old. Since then he has gone from pink to red-blood red.

A brother, Dien Minh, works for North Vietnam, heading up the "Department of Subversion for South Vietnam."

Our liberal press keeps insisting that Tri-Quang is a "Buddhist." Strange they can tell a man's religion but not his politics. He has often stated that he "finds no incompatibility between Buddhism and communism."

The basic tenets of the Buddhist faith are: (1) Do not harm or kill any living creature; (2) Do not take what belongs to someone else unless it is offered to you by the owner; (3) Do not lie; (4) Do not drink alcoholic beverages; and (5) Be chaste.

Viewed in light of these principles and the Red's program of terror, Tri-Quang's brand of Buddhism reminds me of Fidel Castro's once highly publicized (by the same liberal press) "Roman Catholicism."

And like Castro, he is all the more dangerous because he is a phony.

didates, but the Democrats are making a final push with three October dinners on tap.

The Illinois Beach State Park Lodge was the scene Saturday of a $25 a plate dinner for John Matijevich, North Chicago police chief and Democratic candidate for State Representative.

The popular police officer drew a solid turnout of supporters indicating that early predictions that he would run a strong race were not amiss.

Actually, Matijevich, who has campaigned county-wide in the past, should be the Democratic winner despite the popularity of Fox Lake Mayor Joseph Armondo.

Armondo, who entered the representative race belatedly after William Hartnett withdrew, will be host at an outing at Deer Haven Park, Ingleside on Sunday from noon to dark.

Magistrate John Hughes, of Waukegan, Democratic candidate for one of two Associate Judge posts to be filled in November, will be honored at a dinner at the Charcol House, Wednesday, Oct. 12.

Judge Hughes is getting solid support from party workers and stands a good chance of joining Circuit Judge Philip Yager as a Democratic jurist in the GOP courthouse stronghold.

The Sunday drivers are out in force in Lake County now that the leaves are beginning to turn and the countryside is taking on its autumnal glory.

This year's weekend tours should draw even more traffic than in recent years because the stumbling Chicago Bears are not going to keep many football fans glued to their television sets on Sunday.

And speaking of football, Bernard Osmond, a Republican precinct committeeman who could use a few winners, has predicted a conference title for Antioch High School.

Osmond insists the prediction is based on the talent and ability of the team and not on any goodwill gesture to help sell real estate or insurance.

Not all Texans have fabulous incomes. Someone there has to teach school.

ed Mike Haley a piece of her birthday cake, only he ended up wearing it!

Population Explosion

The High School teachers caused a rise in population during the week when the Kenneth Raymonds were blessed with a son; the Ward Lears also were blessed with a son, but to make him even more special, he arrived on Ward's birthday!

Corner of Many Faces

That First National Bank has certainly changed that eyesore corner into the most attractive in Antioch. Back in operation today, new building, new service, new boss. Congratulations!

SUZUKI, Annie, not Honda

Dear Annie Mae,
Just a very important notice of correction about that beautiful blond riding through town on her motor-cycle. It is impossible for her to be on a Honda. Antioch is not a Honda town but a Suzuki town. Therefore, Jackie Horton is even more beautiful for she rides a Suzuki.

Your Congressman Reports.....

By Cong. Robert McClory

Students of government and leaders of both political parties recognize the plight of our major cities and urban areas. Indeed, the deterioration of great areas of our metropolitan centers has for a long time been the subject of municipal and state action.

The principal attack to date has been with regard to metropolitan and area-wide plans of development. For instance, the Chicago Plan Commission and the North-eastern Illinois Metropolitan Commission are two of the principal agencies concerned with the preservation and development of Chicago and the surrounding metropolitan area. The work of these commissions affects the zoning, land development, open space policies, highway integration, water, sewer, and other public service programs affecting the future of this highly populated and wealthy section of the nation.

Other cities such as New York, San Francisco, Seattle, Los Angeles, Miami, Detroit, and St. Louis have provided similar machinery for directing the future growth of their respective areas.

Lately the federal government has sought to encourage metropolitan area planning and development. Up to the present time this federal role has been limited to grants-in-aid which have been virtually unrestricted.

Under the pending Demonstration Cities bill (S. 3708) the federal role would be greatly enhanced. Indeed, the funds which would be authorized under this legislation to individual cities and metropolitan areas would be subject to strict and arbitrary federal control. Under orders of this bill it is considered that the federal government could virtually override planning commissions and even municipal zoning boards.

While some able planners may occupy positions of influence in the federal government, many state and local officials are justifiably dismayed at the threat of a dominant federal planning czar. It seems appropriate to suggest that individual metropolitan areas require different (not uniform) solutions. In addition, the pending legislation would authorize about $1 billion. This is considered by many to be ill-advised at a time when federal finances are being strained to fight the war in Vietnam.

The Demonstration Cities bill is in deep trouble in this session. Republican members of a House Committee have urged the striking of key sections of this measure, declaring bluntly:

"To do otherwise would be to impose a broad new form of government upon millions of Americans who, we are certain, would overwhelmingly reject Federal-metro government."

Our urban centers need financial assistance but not bureaucratic control.

Peace Corps Volunteer Writes From Malaysia

Some weeks ago we printed excerpts from a letter from a Peace Corps volunteer who is teaching in Malaysia. The letters were from Roy Sundquist, brother of Mrs. Ronald Sheedlo of Rt. 2, Antioch.

This week Mrs. Sheedlo brought in two of her latest letters from her brother. Following are portions of the letters which readers may find of interest:

"March, 1966. In two more weeks exams begin and then three weeks before next term starts. I'll be teaching Physics, Biology, General Science, Health Science, mathematics and some P. E.

"Food has not been too bad. Rice is of course the basic dish and we usually have a soup made from leaves of local plants. From time to time we have a fish for 8 of us which is a real treat. The Peace Corps of course furnishes us with vitamin pills.

"I have been coaching the school basketball team which is rather good. They have practiced a lot in the past but no real organization existed. Basketball has given way to volleyball now so most every afternoon there is a rousing game of volleyball. About 45 minutes is the limit, though, as the sun is so hot.

"Hua Chien High School is 100% Chinese and at present is changing from a Chinese medium of instruction into English. At times I think the students don't understand much of what I say so I must proceed quite slowly.

"I don't know if I'm accomplishing much here, but perhaps the presence of Americans here is of some value without uniforms on.

"The days have been quite hot for the past few months—about 95 at midday. I have become accustomed to this somewhat but the bucket bath each evening is something I wouldn't mind replacing. The first bucket seems awfully cold!

"I was a bit disappointed to hear at the lunch table today that there are those in the town who are of the opinion the U.S. is plotting to extend its imperialism into S.E. Asia and Saravak, why else would there be so many Peace Corps Volunteers in the Sarik area. There is one of us in each of the two high schools, two working with the primary schools, two in 4-H and one in the Public Works Department. As I mentioned before the concept of a volunteer cannot be grasped by more than a few. Suspicion abounds. A

Now Is Time To Join 4-H

The 4-H Club near you is just starting a new year of fun-filled activities. According to Ray T. Nicholas and Helen Volk, Lake County Farm and Home Advisers, the best way to join 4-H is to attend a club meeting with a friend who belongs. The club's leader will give you an enrollment card and will help you select an interesting and enjoyable project. Club leaders can usually find time to visit a new member's parents if the member needs help in selecting a project.

According to the advisers, you belong to 4-H when you pick your project and send the enrollment card to the county extension office. Soon afterwards you will receive your project book and record sheet.

As a first-year member, you can try to earn a 4-H achievement pin. First, you must attend two-thirds of your club's meetings after you join. You must also give a talk or a project report at one of your club meetings.

You must have a project and should keep accurate records on the work you do on your project. Sometime during the summer you will have a chance to exhibit your project at the 4-H show or at an achievement meeting or project tour. If you can do these five things, you will be a 4-H achievement member.

For further information on the 4-H Club program, call or write your County Farm and Home Advisers at Grayslake, telephone BA. 3-5344 or BA. 3-4044.

Taxpayers Federation Analyzes Revenue Article

Privilege, Occupation and Franchise Taxes

With the demand for more revenues to finance the activities and services of State and local governments, the Supreme Court of Illinois was called upon in the 1930's to determine the specific limitations upon the taxing power of the State.

In 1932 the Supreme Court held for the first time (Bachrach vs. Nelson, 349 Ill. 579) that Section I of Article IX of the present State Constitution, in "providing that the General Assembly should raise all needed revenue by levying property taxes on an ad valorem basis, with the exception of a tax on occupations, franchises and privileges," limited the power of the General Assembly to raise revenue to: (1) property taxes on a valuation basis; (2) occupation taxes; and (3) franchise and privilege taxes. Following this decision, the General Assembly, at its 1933 session, enacted the present Retailers' Occupation Tax Act which imposes an occupational tax upon persons engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property for use or consumption.

Over the years the Legislature has imposed various other occupation, franchise and privilege taxes, such as the inheritance, Motor Fuel, use, Cigarette, Public Utilities, Franchise, Horse Racing, Liquor, and Insurance Taxes. What does H.J.R. 71 provide as to such taxes?

Section 2 of H.J.R. 71 provides that the General Assembly may levy or authorize the levy of occupation, sales, use, inheritance, privilege and franchise taxes, uniform as to the objects and subjects taxed within the jurisdiction of the authority levying the tax, and uniform as to exemptions from any such tax. Any such tax on or measured by gross receipts shall be non-graduated and shall be imposed uniformly upon persons and corporations.

It was the intention of the drafters of H.J.R. 71 to accomplish these objectives in Section 2 of the proposal:

(1) To continue the Legislature's present authority to levy occupation, franchise and privilege taxes, and to add thereto the power to levy sales and use taxes. (This would permit the replacement of the present R. O. T. with a true sales tax.) (2) To grant the Legislature the power to make uniform exemptions from such non-property taxes. For example, the intent was to allow the General Assembly to exempt from a sales tax the purchases of food and medicine. (Such sales under the R. O. T. presently account for about 27% of the receipts from such tax.) (3) To permit the Legislature to continue to levy, if it so wishes, occupation and privilege taxes measured by gross receipts.

Exemptions
The amendment proposal continues the authority in the Legislature to make the present exemptions from taxation, plus the right to exempt intangible property and the income therefrom held for purposes of providing pension or welfare benefits. Little of such property hits the tax rolls now, in addition, many of such pension funds repose in banks of other States, while the threat of taxation remains in Illinois. Under the provisions of Senate Bill 458, passed by the General Assembly in 1965, such funds may be tax exempt under the present Constitution. If such funds come back to financial institutions in Illinois, many feel that the economy will receive a boost.

Committee To Plan Program

Ray Page, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has announced the appointment of a seven-member committee of prominent educators to prepare a long range program for the education of teachers of handicapped children.

Page said that it is imperative that more teachers be trained to meet the increasing needs of Special Education, and especially to meet the need for more teachers as schools comply with legislation which makes Special Education mandatory in all schools by 1969.

"Teachers of handicapped children are now trained at 20 colleges and universities in Illinois. Through scholarships and intensive recruiting efforts, all of these programs are growing rapidly but must be further expanded to keep pace with special education programs," Page said.

The new committee will make recommendations concerning all aspects of recruitment, selection, scholarship and training of teachers of the handicapped.

Dr. Harold Phelps, Director of Special Education for Illinois State University at Normal, will serve as chairman of the committee. Other members are Dr. James M. Crowner, Dr. Robert Henderson, Dr. E. Milo Pritchett, Dr. William Desmond Phillips, Dr. Hermer Myklebust and George R. Harrison.

House Approves Boat Harbor Study

Congressman Robert McClory (R, Lake Bluff) announced from his Washington office that the House of Representatives has approved an appropriation of $12,000 for continuing the feasibility study by the U. S. Corps of Engineers of a small boat harbor at Highland Park.

At the request of a committee of Highland Park residents, federal legislation was initiated last year by Congressman McClory. The project is being coordinated and promoted by the Highland Park Development Association of which Lawrence Sasorossi is chairman.

The Congressional action has resulted, so far, in a public hearing and various preliminary plans looking toward a harbor development adjacent to portions of the Highland Park beach. The project is intended to accommodate several hundred sailboats and pleasure craft. It is expected that the feasibility study will be completed some time next year with a recommendation at that time for financing the project.

The measure now goes to the Senate where approval is also expected.

Coulson Addresses Oakland P.T.A.

State Senator Robert Coulson addressed the members of the Oakland P.T.A. last Monday night on the subject of Junior colleges and universities in Lake County.

Senator Coulson declared that Lake County could use a junior college or University, and he believes they could use both.

Coulson believes that one of the four universities now in the planning stage should be located in Lake County. Coulson pointed out that we will be taxed for the universities. Location of one in the county would save parents the sizeable expense of room and board for their children.

Members voted to omit the Christmas potluck in favor of a children's program.

Oakland and Antioch P.T.A. meetings for the third Monday in February will be combined. The program will be the grade school band. The organizations will hold separate meetings, in addition. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Block, Mrs.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases."

The Psalmist's assurance of God's healing power is included in the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon titled "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

The account of the woman who was healed simply by touching the hem of Jesus' garment is also among the Scriptural readings.

Are you ill, and worried about it? Do you need the assurance that there

Mrs. Sharon Fryer, teacher, checks on work being done by one of the workers at the Antioch Workshop.

Mrs. Sharon Fryer supervises as plastic forks are packaged at the Antioch Workshop.

The Workshop -- A Chance To Learn

Smiling and with happy faces, the youngsters at the Workshop for the Retarded south of Antioch bend their heads to their task. One by one, they place plastic forks in a bag, packaging them in bags of 100.

When one bag is finished, they set it aside and go on to the next bag. Hour after hour, six hours a day, they put little plastic forks in bags.

Monotonous? Repetitious? Would it drive you "out of your mind" to perform a task of this sort, hour after hour, day after day?

To these youngsters, it's a challenging and happy experience. It's their first experience at holding a paying job. It's learning to do something they didn't know they could do. It's working with others, going to a job every day, like everyone else, greeting familiar co-workers and the "boss," Mrs. Sharon Fryer, and the pet rabbit in his cage at the end of the room. It's exchanging little jokes, the triumph of picking out and discarding a defective fork, and proudly showing the boss that you didn't miss it. It's a chance to be like everybody else for a while, working, talking, enjoying the society of your peers.

It's the everyday things we take for granted because we are lucky enough to be "normal." We can work, earn a living, take care of ourselves. And looking at these youngsters you can't help thinking, "There, but for the Grace of God, is my child." And you wonder about their future.

A few will finally be able to get jobs out in the workaday world. But even their future will be uncertain. For the others, when something happens so that their parents can no longer provide them with a home, there is only Dixon State Hospital, or a similar institution; overcrowded, understaffed, a place where they can live out their days without intruding their problems on the busy lives of the "normal."

And you wonder at a society that can spend millions on concrete paving, and guns, and shells, and piles of stone and brick, but can't figure out a way to provide a decent home and a bit of work for these cheerful, harmless people who need so little to make them happy.

Illinois, in fact, is doing more for the retarded now than ever before. Under the impetus of the activity of the Kennedy family and a program instituted by Governor Kerner, a very late start toward helping the retarded has gotten under way. The public is slowly learning that retardation is not a disgrace, and that the retarded need not be "hidden away" in closets. But what is being done is a constant struggle for necessary funds, and much of it supported by voluntary contribution rather than taxes.

The Workshop, south of Antioch, on Grass Lake Road, in a building that used to be occupied by the Chalet Marina, is one small start toward helping a few. Here, the retarded who can learn to do a simple job are taught to work.

There are only five young people at the Workshop now, but Robert Flood, Executive Director of the Lake County for the Retarded, says he is sure the number will grow. The parents must bring the young people, of course. And Flood knows there are more young people in the area who are eligible for the Workshop.

The Workshop contracts with industries for simple jobs, such as packaging of forks. The youngsters can't count to 100, of course, so Mrs. Fryer has prepared a "pilot package" of 100 forks.

The young people put enough forks in the bag to fill it to the same height as the pilot bag. Mrs. Fryer has weighed the pilot bag, and weighs each completed bag to check it.

Defective forks are discarded as they go along. After the boys fill the bags, they go over to the lone girl who works at the Workshop. It's her job to staple the bags shut.

The youngsters are paid by piece work. They understand pay day, even as you and I, and look forward to it.

Director Flood, who also supervises the Waukegan Workshop, says he discovered that the piecework system provided more incentive for the workers. There are about 30 workers in the Workshop in Waukegan, and they were originally paid on an hourly basis. He noted that the workers tended to sit idle for periods, so tried paying them on a piece work basis. The first week on piece work, the youngsters' earnings dropped. By the end of the second week, most of them raised their earnings back up to the amount they earned on an hourly basis.

Three young people from the Waukegan Workshop have been placed in regular jobs—one in the cleaning plant at Great Lakes, one in the cafeteria at Downey, one as a chambermaid. Flood says he feels sure the girl at the Antioch Workshop will eventually be able to go into private employment. Usually, it takes about four years training at the Workshop for the youngsters to be ready to take this step.

The Antioch Workshop is the only one to date out in the county. Director Flood has hopes of establishing at least two more eventually, one probably in the Libertyville-Mundelein area. "They must be in areas with fairly large and growing populations," he pointed out. "The parents must bring the youngsters to work each day, so it must be in an area close enough to accommodate a number of retarded youngsters."

Funds for the Workshops come from several sources—a modest tuition paid by the parents, a grant in aid from the State Department of Mental Health (this is reimbursement for certain monies spent), contributions from the United Community Fund of North Lake County, and some perpetual donations from kind friends. The Lake County Society for the Retarded has some fund-raising activities, such as the sale of Christmas trees. And on Sunday afternoon, November 6, the Society will conduct a door-to-door drive for contributions throughout the county, including Antioch.

There are many levels of retardation, Flood remarked, and you can never be sure just how much the retarded can do until someone tries to teach him. Lake County Schools have developed a good program for the Educable Handicapped, and Flood cited Antioch High School as one of the best in teaching the retarded children.

But those who are incapable of absorbing education can still be trained in simple skills. And this is where the Workshop comes in. After all, Flood points out, it's cheaper to teach them to work, and to supply them with work, than it is to maintain them in dreary institutions.

Recreation for the handicapped is an area that has hardly been considered in the comparatively new programs for the mentally retarded. Recreation can take many forms, and Flood would like to see a definite program evolved, particularly for the educable retarded schoolchild during summer vacation. Day camps, particularly for these children, is a dream for the future.

Dances, movies—these and many other forms of recreation could be made available—if the money and the personnel to handle the programs were available.

Discipline in the Workshop is no problem, Flood says. An outstanding quality of the retarded youngster is compassion for others. "You see it continually in their eagerness to help someone else with a more severe handicap, in their sympathy with, any problem of one of their fellows," Flood said. "Perhaps one child has a handicap that makes it difficult for him to put on his coat—the others are eager to help."

A dream for the future is residential facilities for the retarded of all ages, a place

Mental Health Auxiliary Plans Future Programs

Mrs. Donald Holem, Sr., told of her visits to Elgin State Hospital at the fall meeting of the Antioch Auxiliary of the Lake County Mental Health Society last Monday night. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Lubkenan on North Avenue.

Mrs. Holem invited the Antioch Auxiliary to accompany her group on their visit to the hospital. The visit will be a Halloween party for the patients and will take place towards the end of the month. Antioch members plan to go, and anyone who is interested in visiting and talking with the patients is invited to come.

A dance committee to plan the spring benefit ball will be announced. Mrs. Anton Stanich, Mrs. Clarence Spiering and Mrs. Edmund Vos will attempt to find a building that will be suitable for the Auxiliary's planned thrift and resale shop.

The winter meeting of the Auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. Edmund Vos, 576 North Main St., at 8 p.m. November 29. Anyone who is interested in the activities of the group is cordially invited to attend. The Auxiliary will provide free programs for organizations. For information call 395-2247 or 395-0305.

State Bank To Offer Charge Card Program

Customers of the State Bank of Antioch will shortly be issued all-purpose charge cards permitting them to make credit purchases not only in the Antioch and Metropolitan Chicago areas, but throughout Northern Illinois. The service eventually will be extended throughout Illinois and possibly the entire United States.

The bank this week announced its affiliation with Town and Country Charge, which initially will be sponsored jointly by more than 100 banks in the metropolitan area and will be the largest of three Chicago-based compatible bank charge card systems expected to become operational later this autumn.

William E. Brook, president, said the bank has already started enrolling Antioch merchants in the Town and Country plan, and that individual charge cards will be mailed in time for the Christmas shopping season.

All three of the new plans are members of the Midwest Bank Card system. Cards issued by all the plans will carry the same identifying Midwest Bank Card symbol, and the same symbol will be posted at all retail establishments honoring cards of the three plans. This means that consumers carrying the Town and Country card can make charge purchases not only from merchants belonging to that plan, but also from hundreds of retail outlets belonging to the other two plans.

Once each month, the holder of a card issued by State Bank of Antioch will receive a bill. He pays nothing for the privilege of charging if the monthly statement is paid within 25 days of the billing date. Otherwise he may exercise the option of paying one-twentieth of the amount due, or $10, whichever is larger, and handling the balance by monthly installments on a revolving credit system for which he is assessed a small carrying charge.

Mr. Brook said the Town and Country plan offers important benefits for both card holders and for participating merchants. In addition to obtaining almost universal charging privileges, and to paying for those charges with one check each month, the card holder will find his personal record-keeping simplified and will be able to manage his finances more efficiently. Convenience, safety, economy, and versatility are other major benefits enjoyed by the consumer using Town and Country.

"The charge card system opens up a vitally important where they can work and live on the grounds. Peoria has established such a complex. Foster homes, of course, would be a tremendous help in many cases, but it is hard to find people willing to take these children into their homes and their lives.

Perhaps, some day, the compassion of "normal" people will match that of the retarded, and there will be enough money to give more of these youngsters more of a chance for a real life. You can help by giving when the Society for the Retarded makes their fund drive November 6. Or by mailing a contribution to The Lake County Society for the Retarded, P. O. Box 158, Waukegan, Ill.

new area of banking," Brook said, "and is in line with our policy of providing our customers with important innovations in financial service as soon as they are available."

C. Crowley Dies At 77

Clarence A. Crowley, 77 years old, a lifelong resident of the Antioch area, passed away Wednesday, September 28 at 10 p.m. in his home on Deep Lake road from a heart attack.

Mr. Crowley had served as President of the Antioch Township Fire District since it was organized. He had served several terms on the Antioch High School Board, was a member of the Lake County Farm Bureau and of the Millburn Congregational Church.

He was born May 27, 1889 in Salem Township in Kenosha County and moved to the farm on Deep Lake Road in 1927. He married Addie Taylor on June 4, 1913 at Kenosha. She preceded him in death on February 5, 1962. Survivors are one son, Kenneth Crowley of Gurnee; one daughter, Mrs. Oren (Marjorie) Nash of Galena, Ill., and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Strang Funeral Home in Antioch, with the Rev. L. H. Messersmith officiating. Interment was in Liberty Cemetery, north of Antioch.

Sophs Lose Heartbreaker At Lake Forest

The scoreboard said it was 27-20 in favor of the Lake Forest sophomores but that was far short of the whole story.

Lake Forest made, at the most, eight first downs in the whole game. Antioch controlled the ball about 18 minutes of twenty in the first half, but 2 kick-off returns were run back and one punt returned by Lake Forest all the way for touchdowns.

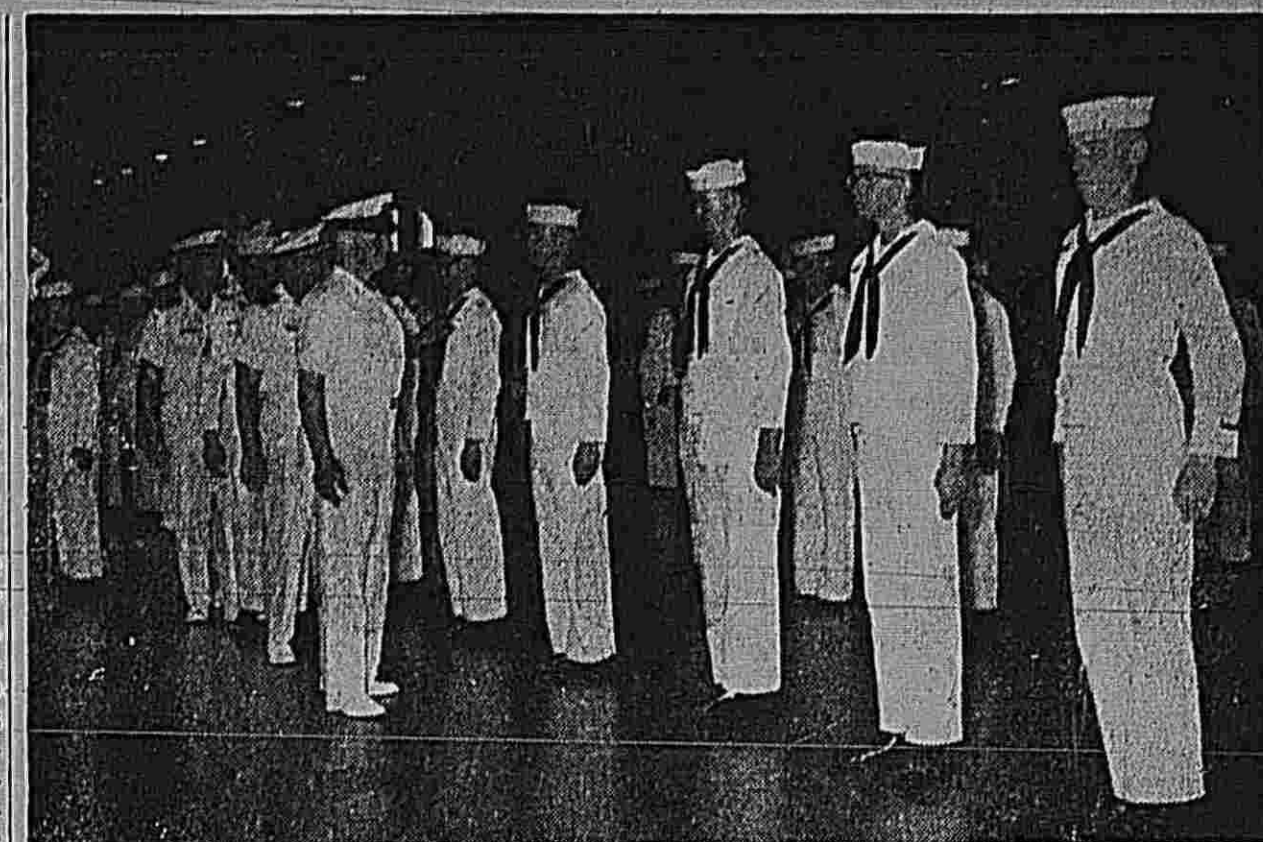

"It was a team effort," said Coach Andy Hauptmann. "The boys played as hard and wanted to win as bad as any team I've ever coached. It was one of those Saturday afternoons where three mistakes lost the ball game."

"I cannot single out any individual because they all played well. I hope the team can re-organize themselves and get their spirits up for Homecoming and play as good as they did last Saturday."

Open House At Fire Dept.

Three Antioch Fire Department will hold an Open House Friday, October 14, as part of the observance of Fire Prevention Week. The fire station will be open to visitors from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Fire Chief Todd Maples urges Antioch residents to tour the department and get first-hand information about the equipment on hand at the fire station and the various methods used in fire-fighting. Several firemen will be on hand to answer questions and display the equipment of the department.

The car they were driving was found to have been stolen in Gary, Indiana. The FBI is holding an open charge against the pair for interstate transportation of a stolen motor vehicle, pending the outcome of other charges.

Cpl. Wells was given an award several years ago for apprehending four armed robbers from Wisconsin.

Fire Control On Program

October 9 to 15 is Fire Prevention Week, and it will be emphasized for elementary school students again this year by the Junior Fire marshal program.

The program, sponsored by Rorer's Insurance Agency and the Hartford Insurance group, takes in the third, fourth and fifth grades of local schools. The schools taking part this year are the Antioch Grade School, Oakland, Grass Lake School, St. Peter's School and Emmons School. This year's program will take in 630 students.

The children are given a form to take home which comprises a fire inspection of their home. They check their homes for safety and return the filled-in form, with their parents' signature, to the school.

The youngsters receive a badge and a fire helmet when they return the completed form. The school which gets the highest percentage of returns is awarded a banner.

Grass Lake School won the award banner last year, with 99% of the forms returned.

Sequoits Drop Lake Forest Game

Antioch dropped out of a three-way tie for first place in the Northwest Suburban League as they were bowled over by the Lake Forest eleven last Saturday, 23-13.

The Sequoits had won their first two games this season, downing St. Mary's of Burlington and Grant. Saturday's defeat leaves Lake Zurich and Lake Forest tied for first, both still undefeated.

Antioch drew first blood Saturday as they marched 57 yards on eight plays. Jim Litchfield completed the journey across Lake Forest's goal line with a 20 yard run.

Antioch turned the Scouts back twice as they had first downs within 10 yards of Antioch's goal line. Lake Forest scored their first Henry Walker tackled Tyrone Walls in the end zone to score two points for a safety.

Lake Forest needed only five plays to score again, with Terry Moran running the ball across to make the score 9-6.

Antioch took the lead again just before the half when Wayne Hanson blocked Moran's punt and set up Antioch's second touchdown. The half ended Antioch 13-Lake Forest, 9.

Lake Forest took over in the second half and kept control of the ball a good share of the time. Two more touchdowns and two PAT's put Lake Forest well out in front, 23-13.

Coach Roy Nelson had no excuses for his boys. "They beat us in the line—our boys just didn't hold 'em," he said. "We wanted this one, but we're not out of the running."

Antioch will face Round Lake for Antioch's Homecoming Saturday. Both teams have a 1-1 conference record. The Sequoits will be on their home field, and fired up for Homecoming.

Rifles Suffer First Defeat

The Madison Mustangs stamped the Lake County Rifles Saturday night, handing the southern division entry of the CSFL their first defeat of the 1966 season.

The undefeated Wisconsin unloaded the Rifles 21-6. Despite the Lake County's loss, they clinched at least a tie for the southern division crown, as Chicago knocked off the Elmhurst Travelers 47-18 in a wild melee at Chicago.

The Rifles must now win one of their remaining three games to cop the division title.

Saturday's encounter was a frustrating evening for the locals. "Three scoring drives were thwarted inside the Madison 5-yard line via interceptions. In the first quarter after several punt exchanges, Mustangs' quarterback found Phil North in the open, and the two combined for a 62 yard pass play and TD. Gale Douglas made the PAT, and Madison grabbed a 7-0 lead.

Madison, again in control of the ball, threatened; but the Rifles defense held on their own 4 yard line. Lew Flinn began to move his chargers upfield, and in the second period of play, the Lake County team held the ball on the Mustangs' 2 yard line on second down. Flinn elected to go to the air, and alert Madison defensive Bob Larkin intercepted to halt the Rifles' threat.

With just 1 minute 40 seconds showing on the clock till half time, Flinn again was the victim of an interception. He shot a short toss to Angelo Debiero that was picked off by Wisconsin Rose Bowl star Jim Grudzinski, who raced down the sideline for a 49 yard scoring play. The Douglas PAT was good, and Madison led 14-0. The Rifles bounced right back with a fine runback of the kickoff by Dick Wolf, and the half ended with the Lake Countians inside the Mustangs' 15 yard line.

The third period found both defensive units averting potential scoring opportunities. In the final chapter, Madison recorded its third TD on a 5 yard jaunt by the former Big Ten sprint champ Billy Smith. Douglas booted the conversion, and the Rifles trailed 21-0.

Flinn began to find targets. Warren Nicholas, and Eddie Schultiss, and moved within striking distance. A short plunge by fullback Bill Bodie put the Rifles on the board with six points. The PAT was wide of its mark and the evening's contest left the Lake County club tasting its initial defeat of the year—21-6.

Statistically, the Rifles fared better than Madison, with 15 first downs to 12; 226 yards passing, compared with 162 for the visitors. On the ground, the Wisconsin team accrued 106 to the Rifles' 72. The locals generally felt that they suffered an off night, but being healthy should bounce back into the win column against Elmhurst next week.

The Rifles play the Travelers at York High School Field at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 9. A victory here will give the Rifles the Southern Division crown.

Sleeper Of The Century

A recent issue of Life magazine carried an editorial entitled, "Watch Out for 'Title 19'." Title 19 is a provision of medicare designed to help anybody under the age of 65 who needs medical care but cannot afford it. In the words of Life, this provision "... may turn out to be the medical and fiscal sleeper of the century."

Title 19 provides grants to the states from the federal government ranging from 55 per cent of medical costs in the richer states to 83 per cent in the poorest. Title 19 allows the states to provide care to the medically indigent but is extremely vague as to who are to be considered medically indigent. Two of the first states to qualify for Title 19 aid—Oklahoma and Minnesota have set amounts ranging from $2,448 to $2,800 as the annual income below which a family is considered medically indigent. New York state, on the other hand, passed a law that established $7,500 annual income and $3,000 in the bank as a minimum needed before a family could undertake to pay its own medical expenses. The New York law immediately qualified 8 million New Yorkers for free medical care—44 per cent of the population of the state. In some rural counties, the "indigent" would have totaled 80 per cent of the inhabitants. One county welfare director was amazed to find his own family qualified.

Fortunately, the New York law was modified. But, implementing Title 19 of medicare in New York state will cost the federal government nearly a quarter of a billion dollars this year. No one knows what the total bill for Title 19 will be when all the states have submitted their plans, but, it is a certainty that it will run into billions of dollars.

As Life concludes, Congress should rewrite Title 19 to assist in the medical problems of those truly in need "... without bankrupting the rest of us."

Following this evening of fun and entertainment are now five more weeks of intensive rehearsal of "Once Upon a Mattress," which will open the 1966-67 season of live theatre in Antioch. It will be presented November 4 and 5, 11 and 12 and will be directed by Ken Smouse. This hilarious adaptation of the familiar fairy-tale "The Princess and the Pea" was the off Broadway show that made Carol Burnette so famous.

Starring in the leading role of Princess Winnifred is Dee d'Isa who will never be forgotten by our audiences as Opal in "Everyone Loves Opal," Adelaide in "Guys & Dolls," and Naughty Nancy in "Little Mary Sunshine." The rest of the cast consists of: Prince Daintless, Steve Krotz; Lady Larkin, Florence Babusek; Sir Harry, Ken Smouse; Queen Aggravain, Gloria Davis; King Sextimus, Don Beveroth; the Jester, Glen Morgan, and the Minstrel, Bob Thomley. Members of the chorus will be announced later.

Season tickets are now on sale and may be obtained by calling Vivian Mapletorpe at 395-3613. A substantial savings can be realized by purchasing this ticket which includes all three shows of the season.

View Carpeting "Bargains" With Caution, Says Clark

TREAD LIGHTLY—INFERIOR QUALITY

Meaningless terms as to quality and wearability should be disregarded when considering the purchase of carpeting for your home. That "end of the mill run" of carpeting purchased for a "big hotel job" could mean the end of your peace of mind.

"Special purchases" described by telephone solicitors should be viewed askance. Salesmen follow up the telephone solicitors with samples of carpeting which are of undeniably excellent quality. But when the carpeting is delivered, it is very inferior to that of the sample.

The high incidence of such calls has steered many unhappy purchasers to our Bureau of Consumer Fraud. As a result of studying complaints filed against several fraudulent pattern operators, we have formulated three following warning to prospective purchasers:

First of all, demand that the salesman leave a sample before signing the contract. Secondly, if a trade name is used in the sales pitch, be sure the name as well as the "grade" of carpeting are included in the wording of the contract. The quality (grade) should be described in terms readily recognized in the industry.

Both the sample and the trade name should be used for comparison when delivery is made to your home and before the installers begin to lay the carpeting.

Prospective purchasers should bear in mind that the carpeting under consideration might well be manufactured by a firm whose name is familiar to them. What few home owners realize is that many (if not all) of the leading carpet manufacturers produce several grades of carpeting. They will also manufacture carpeting according to the specifications of certain distributors.

The Circuit Court of St. Clair County granted our East St. Louis office an injunction against the International Commercial Carpet Company, Inc., for allegedly misrepresenting that the "commercial" carpeting they were selling at substantially reduced prices consisted of remnants from commercial installations. The company misrepresents that they had recently installed carpeting at three locations in St. Louis, Mo., and fraudulently used the names of these three establishments in their sales pitch. They also misrepresented that carpeting such as they were selling could not be purchased from local retail merchants.

Although many of the complaints against such fraudulent carpet sales are lacking in concrete evidence as to the pitch used by the salesman, by establishing a pattern of operation on the part of the company involved, we have been able to secure cancellation of contracts or settlements between the parties through hearings conducted in our offices.

192 complaints against carpeting companies have been resolved in our Chicago bureau alone, while 22 such cases are active.

The fraudulent pattern operators who sell by use of such deceptive practices are the companies we're interested in taking out of competition with legitimate businesses. And the "Act to Prevent Consumer Fraud" under which the Bureau operates has gone a long way toward saving consumer dollars for the honest businessman.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover says, "Law enforcement today is being degraded, purposely in many instances by the widespread and indiscriminate use of the term 'police brutality'."

Red Cross Helps Fighting Men

A basic responsibility of Red Cross is providing help to America's fighting men and their families at home. As the Vietnam conflict escalated during 1965-66, there was a dramatic increase in Red Cross assistance to GI's, their families and veterans.

Red Cross help included, for example: Providing rapid communication, around the world, in the event of serious illness or death in the family; helping with basic family needs when allotment checks are held up; counseling with the family of a GI on difficulties arising during the serviceman's tour of duty.

To carry out these responsibilities, the Red Cross has trained volunteers and staff throughout the U. S. and at 400 American bases overseas. Nearly 200 Red Cross personnel are with U. S. troops in South Vietnam. Others are in Japan, the Philippines, and around the world.

The growing conflict in Vietnam has increased Red Cross services there by more than 500% in some activities.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS 10 THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1966

In the early months of 1966, 11,000 GI's a month sought and counseling services.

Career Red Cross personnel are on duty at five U.S. military hospitals, 10 American bases in Vietnam and are aboard the hospital ship Repose.

The Auxiliary presented Mrs. Dominick (Agnes) Wilhelm with a card for her 55th wedding anniversary and sang "Happy Anniversary" to her.

Twenty-eight members were present for the first meeting of the season.

Anniversaries
Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Wilhelm of Granada observed their 55th wedding anniversary on Sept. 27 by attending the 9 o'clock Mass at Prince of Peace Church that was said for them. Approximately 30 friends, neighbors and relatives attended the Mass and then went back to their home for brunch. Fr. David Lynch, pastor, and Mrs. Geri Sommers of Chicago, Mrs. Wilhelm's sister and maid of honor were among the guests.

Also their daughter, Mrs. Stewart (Agnes) Avidsen of Chicago and her children, Trudie, Steve and Marianne, and their children Gerry, Gwen, Blane and Donna Marie.

Sunday afternoon the Wilhelm family were treated to dinner at The Country Squire by their daughter and her family. There were 13 people in the Wilhelm's wedding party when they were married on Sept. 27, 1911, at St. Alphonsus Church.

Thirty friends and relatives attended the 25th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond (Juanita) Moore of Parma Dr. in Venetian Village Sept. 7. It was also the 25th anniversary of Mrs. Moore's sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Ness of Berkeley, so they made it a double celebration by having a lawn party.

Forget that Gas is cheaper.

(Remember you're in command with a gas range.)

A gas range never tries to take over and boss you. When you turn it on, it responds instantly with full heat. And off means OFF. No lingering heat to overcook your food.

What's more, you can see what you're doing. You can adjust the flame to any degree of heat you want. That's one reason why nearly all professional chefs like to cook with gas. And a gas range is the only kind that doesn't smoke when it boils.

One more point: Who wants a fair-weather friend? Gas is dependable. You can count on it to cook your meals (and keep your kitchen cozy) no matter how much it sleets, snows or blows. The handsome new gas ranges are on display at your dealer's and at our stores. See them now.
